HAPPY TAILS!

Houston Life viewers helped reporter KPRC2 Joe Sam find a FUR-Ever friend from BARC in November. From three potential pups, viewers helped match Joe with Snoopy, a one-year-old lab mix whose puppy kisses we suspect helped him secure the most votes! Snoopy is now named Ghost and is happy to be spending the holidays with his new dog dad!

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Shoutout to our wonderful photo team! BARC's volunteer photo team contributes countless hours to help market our shelter pets to adopters and our rescue partners.

Thank you for your dedication and for capturing the beauty in all of the animals here at our shelter.

TWO YEARS OF SUCCESS!

For the previous two years, BARC has reached a 90% live release rate - the number of animals leaving the shelter via adoption, rescue, return wild, foster, or returned to owners, a historic milestone for the City's animal shelter! Thank you to our sponsors, adopters, fosters, rescues, volunteers, and staff who has made this milestone possible.
